The document provides information on: the priorities of the programme, the actions supported, the funding available for different actions, detailed information on participation. The Guide is available online, with a more user-friendly, accessible format to make it easier to find information, and as a PDF file to download. It also provides the rules and conditions for receiving a grant and it lists various reference documents in the Guide's Annex IV to assist potential participating organizations with their application process. Read more about the Erasmus+ 2019 program here Find out more general information about the Erasmus+ programme here Erasmus+ is the European Commission's programme to support education, training, youth and sports in Europe for the period of 2014-2020. Other projects nurture the democratic process in Europe and its influence globally. Download the new Erasmus+ Programme Guide here: [wpdm package id=2323] This document provides information on: the priorities of the programme, the actions supported, the funding available for different actions, detailed information on participation. The Guide is an integral part of the 2022 Erasmus+ Call for Proposals, published on 17/11/2021. Erasmus + projects address many of the challenges that Europe faces, both now and in the years to come. Another important novelty, under the Sector Skills Alliances call, will be the inclusion of a lot for the development of sectoral approaches through platforms of vocational excellence, aimed at establishing world-class reference points for both initial as well as continuing training in specific sectors." The second document, the 2019 Programme Guide, provides essential insight into Erasmus+. It provides organizations and participants a complete outline of the opportunities available for the 2019 programme. There are projects that help us move towards a more circular, green economy, where little is wasted, and pollution is minimised. Discover the 6 priorities: The programme offers a lot of possibilities for teachers and trainers: It is of today's news the official publication, on the European Commission website, of the Erasmus+ Programme Guide 2022. See the Guide here, where you can also download the PDF file. Please find all model application forms HERE The new Erasmus+ Programme Guide has been published today The Erasmus + programme aims to help generations of Europeans to become active citizens, with the skills, knowledge and experience to tackle the challenges facing our society, both now and in the years to come. According to the Work Programme: "In 2019, the main novelty will be the activity on European Universities. The Programme Guide is already available in all languages. The work programme also includes other actions that will be launched separately, such as the European Universities initiative. The main novelties announced in the new calls include: Forward-looking projects to support inclusive digital education and the adaptation of education and training systems for the green transition Increased exchanges with third countries A more inclusive DiscoverEU Efforts to bring the EU closer to schools Simpler financing of cooperation projects. Learn more here or in the programme guide or in the calls portal. ERRIN members can learn more about the 2022 Erasmus+ programme during the Science and Education for Society Working Group's upcoming Erasmus+ Project Development Workshop plenary session on Tuesday 7 December - register here. The new Erasmus programme 2021-2027 has been launched today (Thursday 25 March, 2021) Important deadlines are: Mobility projects, Key Action 1: 11 May 2021;Cooperation projects, Key Action 2: 20 May 2021. It has a budget of €14.7 billion that aims to provide over 4 million Europeans the opportunity to study, train, gain experience and volunteer abroad. Official source: European Commission TAGS2022Erasmus Plusprogramme guide The Erasmus+ Programme Guide is essential to understand Erasmus Plus. It provides participating organisations and individuals a comprehensive list of opportunities supported by the programme. Organisations and institutions seeking funding in the framework of this call must comply with the conditions for participation and funding expressed in this Guide. Home Acerca de Erasmus+ Oportunidades Guía del programa The Programme Guide is the key document for getting to know The Erasmus+ programme Recursos y herramientas Noticias Projects Please reply to all mandatory questions Following the adoption of the 2022 Erasmus+ annual work programme, the European Commission has now launched the programme guide for the calls for proposals for 2022. In the case of conflicting meanings between language versions, the English version prevails. There are projects that focus on inclusion of those who are socially or economically marginalised, while others help prepare today's youth for an increasingly digital world. The next year of the Erasmus+ programme will have an increased budget of almost €3.9 billion, to provide opportunities related to study abroad, traineeships, apprenticeships, staff exchanges and cross border cooperation projects in various areas of education, training, youth and sport. This year's 2019 version of the Work Programme and Programme Guide for Erasmus+ is now out. The selected projects will increase the performance, attractiveness and competitiveness of higher education institutions on a European scale. The first document, the 2019 Work Programme, includes logistical information about the 2019 framework such as the decision to implement grants, thematic goals, procurements and budgetary information.
